

ITF WORLD SENIORS INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

SAN DIEGO, 2012

EARLY ROUNDS OF INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The individual events got underway Sunday and Monday in San Diego. The 55+ men and the 50+ men have large draws of 128. Other age groups have 64 or 32 draws. With the mixed doubles, men's doubles and women's doubles being played, the organizers will be hoping for fine weather throughout the week to ensure all matches are completed on time. With cloudy weather and the possibility of showers tomorrow and Wednesday there are a couple of worrying days but the remaining of the week is expected to be fine and sunny.

In the Men's 35+ singles

Greg Evans won 62, 61; Justin Martin won 75, 60; Rhys McDougall won 63, 36, 63 their way through to the round of 32.

In the Men's 40+ singles

Brett Patten (bye), Michael Evans 60, 60 won their way to the round of 32. Paul Kleverlaan will play his match tomorrow.

In the Men's 45+ singles
