

CRITERIA FOR THE AUSTRALIAN SENIORS NATIONAL SINGLES & DOUBLES RANKING SYSTEM. – Updated July 2016.

Players MUST notify the TSA National Rankings Coordinator Gail Bates (maxqailbates@bigpond.com) when they compete in an ITF International (Overseas) Seniors Tournament for their points to be added to the Australian Seniors Ranking System. Players who do NOT notify the rankings coordinator of their overseas results will NOT have their points added to the TSA rankings list.

- Calculated on a 12 month rolling system with bi-monthly updates at the beginning of February, April, June, August, October & December.
- The system will include all Australian players who compete in ITF and TSA National Ranking Tournaments in Australia plus selected Teams Events endorsed by the TSA Executive.
- Also included will be, International ITF Seniors tournaments including the ITF World Championships and the ITF World Team Cup Events.
- Points gained in International (not Australian) ITF Seniors tournaments will follow the ITF points system e.g. there will be no participation points.
- A players ranking will be calculated on their “Best 4 Results”.
- Australian Seniors ranking tournaments points will be awarded to all rounds, irrespective of the number of players in the event. Mixed Doubles and Combined Doubles are not included in the rankings.
- A player must physically win a match to receive Ranking Points.
- Byes and first round walkovers are not considered as winning a match.
- First match losers will receive Participation Points allocated on a sliding scale to the Grade of the tournament. (see scale below)
- Players who enter an event but withdraw due to injury/illness etc. will be allocated 0 points and will be recorded as one tournament entered.
- Points will be awarded to a player in his/her current age group, irrespective of which age group the points were gained.
- When a player moves into the next age group his/her points from the previous age group will move with them.
- When a player competes in two singles/doubles events at the same tournament, this will be recorded as two separate results.
- The TSA Singles/Doubles Points System will follow along similar lines as the ITF points system, however, it will be extended to all rounds of the event for tournaments played in Australia. (See Below).
- Australian Teams Carnival, players will receive 10 points per set per win per day in Section 1 and 7.5 points per set per win per day in Sections 2 and 3. Points will not be awarded to matches that are cancelled due to rain, heat or forfeited matches. Points will be recorded as 5 separate events.
