

Changes at the top in Tennis Seniors Australia

10-July-2018

The Tennis Seniors Australia Executive Committee wish to announce changes in the leadership for the organisation. At its meeting on 5th July, Clive Wilkinson, the President of Tennis Seniors Australia since January 2017 resigned from the role and his position on the Executive. Peter Dighton (Qld), a former Vice-President of Tennis Seniors Australia was elected President. Ian Worland was elected to the previously vacant position of Vice-President. At the Presidents meeting immediately following, all State representatives were told of the changes.

On behalf of all its members, the TSA Executive would like to sincerely thank Clive for all his contributions to our game through his passionate belief in Seniors tennis and his never ending work ethic.

Clive Wilkinson at the opening ceremony of the 2018 Australian Championships (Q18)